Dear Drew,

This is to confirm our conversation today. We find no basis for currently classifying any of the CIA information contained in your internal memoranda of 21 and 22 March 1967, concerning anti-Castro activities. As most of this information has been published officially, any basis that previously existed for considering them classified no longer applies. In conveying this information it should be noted that some of the statements contained in the memoranda may not be accurate.

Very truly yours,

S. D. Breckinridge
